

Andre Chrys

Andre Chrys at a Glance

On the run from: Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Now running around in: Vancouver, BC.

Started playing guitar: age 13. Used to haul it, and his amp, behind his bike in a little red wagon. Used to do AC/DC and Judas Priest covers at his friend Sammy Kohn's (of the Watchmen) place on Saturday afternoons.

Gathering dust in his basement: a degree in philosophy from the University of Winnipeg.

Influences: Steve Earle, Tom Waits, Elvis Costello, Jim Croce, Lucinda Williams, Stones, Zep, Sabbath.

If he were ever to sing Karaoke it would be: "Brick House", by the Commodores , or "Kung-fu Fighting" by Carl Douglas.

Reads: Wittgenstein to Mad Magazine.

Loves unconditionally: his '58 Gibson and his '79 Volvo.
